

Louisville Public Library Makerspace User Agreement

By using this space, you agree to the following terms of use:

1. I am financially responsible for the Makerspace equipment that I reserve, check out, or use. If any piece of equipment is lost or damaged during my session, I will pay the replacement cost of the item.
2. I understand that the space is intended for digital content creation and creative work only.
3. I am responsible for properly saving my project, and the Library and its staff are not responsible for any loss of data that may occur.
4. I understand and agree to abide by the posted Makerspace policies, including:
 - a) No food or drinks
 - b) Cleaning up after myself
 - c) No cell phone use (except for that required for content creation)
 - d) Being respectful to other patrons
 - e) All other general Library behavior and policies
5. I understand that the Makerspace lab holds two workstations that may both be in use by separate groups or individuals. I agree to work respectfully with others who share the room with me.
6. I understand that while basic Makerspace help may be available immediately from Library staff, advanced help will be available by appointment and availability only.
7. If a computer or other piece of equipment is not working, I will see a Library staff member for help.
